We thank you for honoring the decades of cooperation, outreach and support for the protection of the California desert by designating the Mojave Trails, Sand to Snow, and Castle Mountains National Monuments.

This protection protects sensitive cultural and ecological resources for future generations. It also promotes understanding of the value of these lands for tribes and our neighbors in the community at-large.